

Mr. Guo has more than 12 years' experience in the fields of pure mathematics, civil litigation, and classroom teaching. Trained as an attorney and classroom teacher, he has a deep passion for relationship building, differentiating instruction, and creating learning experiences that are unique and incorporate innovative technology. An expert in mathematics, writing, standardized test taking, and curriculum design, Mr. Guo has influenced his colleagues and students with his enthusiasm, attention to detail, hard work, and innovative approach to solving problems in academia, the law firm, and the classroom.

Northwestern University

Master of Education (MEd), Secondary Education and Teaching - Mathematics

2013 – 2015

University of California, Hastings College of the Law

Doctor of Law (JD), Taxation

2006 – 2009

University of California, Berkeley

Bachelor of Arts (BA), Pure Mathematics

2002 – 2006

University of California, Berkeley

Bachelor of Arts - BA, Mathematics, A

2002 – 2006

3.61 GPA; took a variety of courses in mathematics, philosophy, history, and applied sciences and mathematics.